PROSPECTUS

OF

St. Patrick's Academy.

COR. OAKLEY AND PARK AVENUES,

CHICAGO.

CONDUCTED BY SISTERS OF MERCY.

The Academy, established in September, 1883, occupies one of the finest sites in Chicago, where the air is healthful and the surroundings agreeable. The building is large and well ventilated, containing everything necessary for convenience and comfort. Spacious study-halls and well-arranged class-rooms offer facilities for the maintenance of order, and proper attention to study and recitation.

The course of instruction comprises Orthography, Reading and Elocution, plain and ornamental Writing, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Book-keeping, Grammar, Rhetoric, Composition, Literature; Ancient, Modern and Physical Geography; Astronomy and the use of Globes, Sacred and Profane History, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Logic, Metaphysics, Ethics, Biography, Mythology, Botany, Christian Doctrine, Classical and Modern Languages, Stenography and Type-Writing; Music on Harp, Piano, Guitar, Violin, Mandolin: Vocal Music, Drawing, Painting, Tapestry, and Embroidery in Linen, Silk and Chenille; Wax, Hair and Shell Work. Special attention given to plain sewing.

The academic year consists of two sessions; the first beginning on the first Monday of September, the second on the first Monday of February.

A strict observance of discipline is required of the pupils and a careful attention to neatness. Incurrible pupils will be dismissed. Reference will be required of strangers desiring to enter pupils at the academy.

Examinations in the several Classes are held every quarter, and a report is transmitted to the parents or guardians of the pupils, giving a statement of conduct, progress, studies, etc.

The advancement and promotion of the young ladies, depend, in a great measure, on their regular attendance at school, hence, parents and guardians are requested to assist the teachers, by seeing that their Children do not absent themselves unnecessarily.

The practice of leaving school just before the close of the year is a serious damage to the interests of the institution, and pupils do so at the risk of good standing and of forfeiting prizes.

The scholastic term closes with the distribution of premiums, which the parents of the pupils and special friends of the institution are invited to attend.

Pupils who have distinguished themselves by polite and amiable deportment will be crowned by the Archbishop, Most Rev. P. A. Feehan.

Graduating medals are conferred on THOSE ONLY who take the full academic course.

The Academy is intended for boarders and day-scholars.

In connection with the Academy, a select school is opened for boys under fourteen years of age, in which are taught the branches preparatory to a college course.

Special reference can be made to the Most Rev. Archbishop Feehan of Chicago, under whose patronage the Academy is placed.

Studies will be resumed the first Monday in September. Pupils not then in attendance will be denied the privilege of competing for the deportment and class medals.
